

Terms of reference

1. Rights with no subjects coincide with their violation through:

- denial
- absence-invisibility
- expulsion
- active aggression

2. A very “high IF” consensus on the qualification of “mental health” as a powerful indicator of the impact on health systems of the paradigms of SDG.

3. Epidemiology of rights

The quali-quantitative narrative of the respect viz violation of the contextualized [individual and collective] identity of psychiatric patients as subjects of fundamental rights

- “equal” recognition
- care
- research
- outcome(s) related to life with dignity

What due - possible

1. The translation of events-outcomes from the medical into the “right” framework-language.
2. From descriptive stratifications of correlations institutions \rightleftarrows +/- results to their qualification in terms of:
 - avoidable risk
 - expected violation of rights
 - binding institutional changes
3. Prospective, [multiinstitutional, multinational] cohorts representing:
 - risk of “expulsion”
 - ?
 - right to research.