

Open Dialogue

Jorma Ahonen, social psychologist

Family Therapist and Open Dialogue practitioner, supervisor and trainer & organizational consultant

DIALOGIC Co. Helsinki, Finland

A short history of Open Dialogue

- * Yrjö O. Alanen & al, "Need Adapted Treatment".
- * In Turku, Finland.
- * Western Lapland, sad statistics turn to research projects & supervision & OD principals
- * Research by Jaakko Seikkula, Jukka Aaltonen et. al, close co-work with Tom Andersen of Tromsø

-
- * It's nothing more horrifying to a word
 - * – that been left without an answer.
 - * Mikhael Bakhtin

 - * To be answered / responded, is an basic need
 - * of human been.

 - * Human processes can't be controlled one way.

- * Towards a more humanistic psychiatry: Development of need-adapted treatment of schizophrenia group psychoses.

- * by Yrjö O. Alanen Department of Psychiatry, University of Turku, Finland

The Key Elements of Dialogic Practice in OpenDialogue

- * by Mary Olsen, Jaakko Seikkula, Douglas Ziedonis,